About This Game

In the future, intelligent robot ducks have become smarter than humans, they took our jobs while we were busy fighting nuclear wars with each other. Few of us remained to see what is known today as the "Duckpocalypse". As an enraged simple human mind, you manage to build two guns with the scrap you gathered from an annoying robot duck, and so this is how your duck hunt starts!

Duckpocalypse is a VR arcade-style game made for the HTC Vive. Get in, grab your guns, take a second to let the new pixel world around you sink in, and then shoot that start button! Get on a fast paced challenge to bring down as many of those robot ducks as you can! Invite your friends over and see who can set the best score!

"Of course. Follow me."

Outside The Mansion

The stately mansion of the Baron von Bülow looms in front of you, like a sleeping giant. Light seeps out from a single window on the second floor to the right; all the others are dark. Two large mahogany doors guard the entrance to the north. The path to the south leads to the gate, away from the mansion.

"Here we are, sir," says Jameson. "If you will just follow me."

He opens the doors and disappears into the mansion.

>north

The Hall

It almost seems like a waste for such a massive entrance hall to be used to welcome a single person. The floor is a frozen lake of gray marble, cool beneath your feet. Two sets of stairs lead to a balcony above you. Through the french doors in the northern wall, the back garden is visible in the moonlight. To the south, the dark mahogany doors.

You see Allan Jameson here.

Jameson ascends the stairs.

>north

(first opening the french doors)

The Garden

The grass here has been meticulously groomed. The strands are all exactly alike, like citizens in a socialist utopia. Stone paths wind through the grass like scaly snakes, going nowhere and everywhere. A fountain of white stone occupies the center of the garden. In the center of the fountain, an angel blows a silent trumpet, and a jet of water shoots into the air. The mansion lies behind you, to the south.

The air is cold and clear, like the justice we all seek but never find.

>get justice

You try, but it slips away between your fingers, as always.

Purchased and downloaded, game crashed every time I tried to launch it. Since it apparently continued to "run" in the background even though I couldn't play it, it registered as being played for several hours while we played jackbox party games instead. Since it registered as time played steam wouldn't refund the purchase for me. $5 wasted on a POS that won't run. Expensive, but nice to avoid V minimize the PVP instance 8 on 8 battle Grind :)...Why they price it so to be fair to players putting in 3 to 6 mths gaming 3 hrs a day to achieve this gear...value your time...combo of this and new Feb 28th Apocalypse DLC worth it + a $25 of your choosing...$200 but you can build some amazing rigs, you will not be OP, but if you enjoy RAIDS and the New Story driving adventure (orange missions) which you can do as 4 player groups now, its so much fun, even RP is possible with the amazing rigs you can build on a theme. Icarus hover legs are nerfed since Dec, so can buy them for around 300 coin on market (each) so 4x, 1200c value of almost $30 there. Epic Cab i think 1200 coin can be as low as 800 coin (correction now 325 coin since hover nerfed), but that's alot of grind to get that much coin, another $20 of value there. Lots of armour pieces ect, (6?) invaluable cant be traded on market ect only leveled earned. all in all pack about 8,000coin in value (my estimate) that's $160 right there...and dont forget your time value (3hx7dx3m)=252h...the build part limit increase to 60 very valuable too(other packs except for tanks 55), if new player or less than level 20 (30 is the max lv) until faction tiers. in summary if you like tanks buy the tank DLC $10 less and uber armour parts tracks ect (overdone btw ingame by players)...but if you like adventuring (the new story stuff will grow chapt 2 next) and beeing high tech this is the pack for you :)..update spyder cab now uber in pvp, so arachna pack best value for pvp and or selling cab for 3000 coin +(march 30). This Slay the Spire like game might be fun once the bugs are fixed. I encountered several problems in my first 20 minutes of playing this game including a total game freeze. So at the moment I can't recommend this game. Maybe I will give it another try when it is more polished.. 10 out of 10! BUY THIS GAME NOW!

The tactics of VEmpire are fantastic! You will not find a game like this anywhere else.

The love and dedication that went into this creation are evident from start to finish. The atmosphere is wonderfully suspenseful, the music is top notch and fits perfectly, the art is above and beyond.

As for game play, you have to experience it to really understand just how creative a card game can be!

One purchase gets you the whole game. If you have reservations just because it's not free to play, you are missing out.

As for the Dev, he's so much into his creation that you feel as if he's that "favorite player" you run into in CCG's. The one you always enjoy meeting in the lobby and playing a round or two with!

Wolf, you have a smash hit here! A great big Cheers! to you!

. So, Videobal is here and you need to read a review to buy it? I disapprove but I'll try my best.

Also, what's wrong with people leaving an online match after the first one? What is christmas outside? Get real, play again.

This is a real videogame, you can feel your brain building new connections while playing, the controls are amazing, there's depth to discover in every moment and angle. The music was composed by someone that surely does this for a job, it's serious. The voice that does the commentary remind me of Real Human Basketball (another good one).

I still hadn't the opportunity to play it locally, clearly it's the perfect game for screaming with friends. The online works despite a few launch problems.

Only thing that I'm hating are the menu, the one button idea from divekick is not so cool, also the back button is often incoherently placed. There's no audio notification when the online player connects to your match and when an error happens online you can't see it since you are pressing the button and dismissing it immediately. When you have to select multiple CPUs locally it's a pain (UPDATE: it's a feature! they're different characters).

But those are minor stuff, Tim Rogers basically doesn't care, the game is about people that can jump in the same room. The online will help ok if needed.

BUY-IT.

P.S. The police stole this man car. That's the best reason you've got.. It's more than good enough for me. It's very short, but the replay value makes it worth it. Most of the plot stays the same, of course, but there are a lot of different ways for the endings to play out. Given the price, it's quite worth a shot if you enjoy the demo.. Subpar DLC. Some people like x-sabers, I do not. Some people like super heavy samuri, I do not. This DLC should only be bought for machine duplication, for decks like deskbots.

Epic bought Psyonix. Don't listen to what your friends tell you. The game is fun now, but will become boring and tiring with EPIC's lack of care for the games under their wing. Spend your 20$ on something more worthwhile.. Feelsbadman; seen it on vinesauce and need to buy it, is a great, adicitive game, love it. Support Serbian devs!. I've bought this game in winter sale, and it's excellent for that price. I can see that the work is in constant process and new things are added. It was long on my wishlist and, finally, I bought it at this discount.

. Super Duper Party Pooper, honestly always wanted to try one of those "pooper" games I have been seeing on Steam lately. I decided to try my luck with Super Duper Party Pooper since I also was in the mood for a rhythm game. Overall it was fun for the price, the game was very short but for the fifty cents I payed for the game that was well worth the hour or two I played it. I would recommend the game to anyone looking for a cheap novelty. Honestly its not like its going to blow you away with its state of the art graphics or next gen gameplay, but its fun.. Has a funny story in Achievements and some good looking Effects.

Can get quite thrilling after some time!
